Application For Transfer

You can transfer this Agreement to someone who buys or takes ownership of Your Watercraft if you do the following within thirty (30) days of the change of ownership. The Agreement will be cancelled if the following is not completed and submitted within 30 days of the date of sale to the Administrator's office:

1) Receipts for proof of required OEM maintenance (See Reverse Side)
2) Receipt or bill of sale; (or other dated proof of ownership)
3) This completed Application for Transfer form;
4) A $100.00 (U.S. Funds) transfer fee
   - The fee is $40 for contracts originally issued by a Florida dealer
   - There is no transfer fee for contracts originally issued by a dealer in MA
5) Agreement must be paid in full to be eligible for transfer.

The Agreement must be paid in full to be eligible for transfer. (Original factory warranty must be transferable in order to transfer this Agreement during the factory warranty period.) Until the transfer has been approved by the Administrator, coverage does not apply to subsequent owner. The transferred Agreement is not subject to a refund.

*NOTE: If the maintenance records are not available, the Agreement may still be transferred, however, it is understood that You, the Agreement Holder must comply with the following requirements so that Your Agreement remains in force:

A. You, at Your expense, MUST have the covered unit serviced as specified by the manufacturer. This is to include all maintenance listed in the OEM Owner/Operators Manual. Receipts showing dates and services performed MUST be retained by You, and furnished upon request to the Administrator in the event of a claim. It is also understood that Your receipts may be required to show that all factory updates and/or modifications have been performed.
B. Perform recommended storage maintenance when not in use, as outlined by the manufacturer.
C. Use only OEM recommended oils, filters, additives, grease and proper octane rated fuel.
